

The first Squadron to fly from Germany!

363rd Fighter/Recon locations 1943-45

World War II
European Locations of the Original
363rd Fighter
Group and,
as of Sept. 4, 1944,
the 363rd Tactical Reconnaissance Group

(Diagram from the 363rd Tactical Fighter Wing, still in existence at Sumter, South Carolina)

161st

Fighter Strips

A-7	Azeville Montebourg, France	September 1944
A-38	Montrevil Lemans, France	September 1944
A-64	St. Dizier, France	September 1944
A-97	Luxembourg Grand Duchy	October 1944
Y-10	Le Culot Greze Doiceau, ★ Belgium	December 1944
A-94	Conflans Metz, France (The Bulge)	December 1944
Y-10	Le Culot, Greze Doiceau	January 1945
Y-55	Venlo, Holland	March 1945
Y-99	Gutersloh, Germany	April 1945
R-37	Braunschweig, Germany	May 1945

★
GREZ
DOICEAU WAS WHERE WE WERE QUARTERED
WHILE AT Y10
Y10 WAS ACTUALLY LOCATED JUST OUTSIDE BEAUVENHAU
ON A
2900 FOOT
STRIP.
MUD AT FIRST,
THEN PIERCED PLANKING WAS INSTALLED